

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

OUST HAYES, SAYS T. C. BETTERTON

City Attorney Instructed to Investigate Clerk's Criminal Liability for Shortage.

Auditor C. S. Petersen's report of the amount of money paid into the city's treasury by Circuit Court Clerk Charles Hayes during and after the last audit brought about some action on the part of city commissioners Tuesday morning.

On motion of Commissioner Betterton, City Attorney Frank Carden was instructed to make a thorough investigation of Mr. Hayes' report and to report back to the commissioners' meeting next Tuesday. It was stated that Hayes had failed to turn over to the city certain money he had collected for the city. Mr. Carden's report will determine whether or not criminal proceedings will be brought against Hayes.

It was declared in commissioners' meeting that ouster proceedings ought to be brought against Hayes. Commissioner Betterton said:

"As it is, some steps ought to be taken to see if Mr. Hayes is not criminally responsible under the law. It is not good policy for this board to have the care of finances and not by and see the city's money go in default."

The report shows that Mr. Hayes paid a total of $2,137.53 in delinquent taxes and penalties and $762.25 in fines and costs since Nov. 30. In addition to these sums suit is pending for recovery of $2,400 which the city claims is due. The city has received from Mr. Hayes $2,899.97 the last two months.

Commissioner Betterton announced the appointment of Aaron Gearis on the police force to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Paul Brown to the detective force.

SEAMSTRESSES HOME FROM CHARLESTON NAVY YARD

Difficulty in Securing Eating and Sleeping Accommodations the Cause.

Some of the young ladies who a few months ago went to Charleston, S.C., to work in the garment department of the United States navy yard, making uniforms for marines, have returned to their homes in East Chattanooga. Those who have returned give good account of working conditions there. The wages paid are $2.50 per day of eight hours, and extra pay for all overtime, of which they are allowed to put

TO EXPEDITE HANDLING OF FREIGHT HERE

H. P. Eager, local manager of the East Tennessee Demurrage and Storage bureau, was elected president of the Chattanooga subcommittee on car service at a meeting of the local railroad men Tuesday afternoon.

J. E. Hutchens, who is chairman of the subcommittee at Birmingham, Ala., was present and explained the methods used by the committee in Birmingham.

The object of the organization of the committee is to obtain the co-operation of the shippers and the fastest movement possible of freight cars.

Local committees will be appointed by the president and each committee will have a certain line of work to direct—for example, the intensive loading of cars, the interchange of cars and a committee on the delay of cars.

It was decided that the subcommittee for Chattanooga will meet every Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, in the office of Mr. Eager.

In as much as they desire.

Their reasons for returning home were not because of dissatisfaction with working conditions or wages paid, but because of scarcity of boarding-house accommodations.

The garment-making department is in the center of the navy yard. Some of the women had to go as far as eight or ten miles to get a place to sleep or eat their meals. This was a great disadvantage, and took up a great deal of their time, requiring unreasonably early and late hours to comply with working rules.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST FLY SOON TO BEGIN

The usual spring "fly campaign" will be started a great deal earlier this year than usual. The city department of health is making arrangements to start this work about March 1 and endeavor to eliminate all "fly-breeding places."

Mrs. Joseph Johnston is chairman of the special committee in charge of this campaign and will announce the prizes as usual to the boys who wish to enter into the fly-catching contest. Mrs. Johnston will make arrangements for an inspection of all such places as livery stables, especially those located on the prominent business streets of the city like Market. The city ordinance governing the sanitary conditions of such places will be strictly enforced. She will enlist the aid of the United States health officials in this matter and therefore expects to accomplish great results.

PREFERRED WORKHOUSE TO SUPPORTING WIFE

Andy Houston Given Choice and Accepts Confinement Behind Bars.

Andy Houston, colored, has passed many milestones along life's journey, but had rather sojourn in the county workhouse than contribute $2 a week toward the support of his wife and child.

Judge Martin Fleming gave Andy his choice in police court Tuesday morning, and he frankly announced that he would go to the workhouse.

That settled it with the judge and he placed his own name on the warrant as a witness against Houston.

Andy did not seem to be very much worried over his predicament.

When Houston, appeared before Judge Fleming to answer a charge of failure to provide, his wife, Isabella Houston, was on hand to present her side of the case, and she did not fail to present it. She walked with the aid of a crutch. The defendant, after listening to her recital, started out to tell his story, but before he had gone very far the judge stopped him and told him he must either give her $2 a week or take the workhouse route. Andy preferred the latter course, and he was placed under a bond of $2,000.

LOCAL BAR CALLED FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 5

Will Decide at That Time on What Action to Pursue in Long and Daly Cases.

Col. Ed Watkins has issued a call for a meeting of the local bar association Tuesday, March 5, at 11 a.m. for the purpose of investigating the charges against J. H. Daly and Percy Long, preferred in a written report by the grievance committee. The committee investigated charges made against the two attorneys at the instance of Capt. Kenneth Kern, of the provost guard. Capt. Kern charged that the two lawyers had been unethical in their conduct toward their clients. Mr. Long was reported on several charges and Mr. Daly on one charge, which grew out of a check given him by Edna Br— a client of his. The call which was issued by Col. Watkins is as follows:

"The members of the Chattanooga Bar association are requested to meet in the library room in the Hamilton National Bank building on Tuesday, March 5, at 11 a.m. to hear and pass upon the report of the grievance committee with reference to charges made against J. H. Daly and P. L. Long. A full attendance is earnestly requested. (Signed) "E. WATKINS, "President Chattanooga Bar Association."

Corpl. Lee A. Ortman, of the United States army, who is now in France, writes back to relatives and says he feels like he can write a book now on his adventures that would make Irvin S. Cobb feel like 30 cents. In his letter Corpl. Ortman makes a request for cigars, as he says it is impossible to buy them in France.

The letter is written to his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Ortman, of 29 South Elizabeth street, Mt. Healthy, Hamilton county, Ohio, and to his sister, Mrs. Emily Melching, of this city. The letter in full follows:

"Somewhere in France, "January 4, 1918.

"Dear Mother, Sisters and Brothers:

"Sorry to keep you waiting so long for some word from me, but conditions have been such that it was next to impossible to do any corresponding. However, I have the good news to all each day—yes, each hour of the day, and even dreamed of you by night. I know full well, mother, dear, how you do worry about me and (knowing you as I do) how often you lie awake at night, thinking of me and I wish there

HUSBAND WASN'T WORTH SHUCKS, SAYS HIS WIFE

They Were Married in Cobb County and Hence This May Be Reason.

Robert Cotton is charged by his wife in a divorce petition with being trifling, no account, drunk, threatening her life, cutting her once with a razor, once with a knife and saying he was going to kill her on several occasions, but outside of all that Robert was a dutiful, loving and kind husband.

Sarah Cotton is the plaintiff and she says that the thirteen months she lived with Robert were most unsatisfactory and exceedingly disagreeable. They were married in Cobb county and that may be some reason why the plaintiff says Robert wasn't worth shucks. The divorce bill was filed Tuesday afternoon through Attorney W. J. Counts.

Lizzie Dobbs also asked for a legal separation from her husband, Emmett L. Dobbs. This couple were also married in Cobb county and the wife charges that her husband turned her out of house and told her he did not love her and never wanted to see her again. Said desertion, the wife complains, has continued since April, 1934. The divorce bill, which was entered in chancery, was filed through Stephen R. Roddy.

Cross, Feverish Child Is Bilious or Constipated

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—(Adv.)
